BOX 8: WRITING INSTRUMENTS

The diagram illustrates the proper disposal of writing instruments. On the left, four items are shown: a blue ballpoint pen, a yellow pencil, a purple Crayola marker, and a blue crayon. A large red arrow points from the title "BOX 8: WRITING INSTRUMENTS" down to a set of three recycling bins. The bins are labeled as follows:

- Landfill (Gray): A gray bin for general waste.
- Recyclables (Blue): A blue bin with a white recycling symbol for paper and plastic products.
- Compostables (Green): A green bin with a white recycling symbol for organic materials.

Based on standard waste sorting rules, the items in Box 8 should be sorted as follows:

- Blue ballpoint pen: Recyclables (Blue)
- Yellow pencil: Compostables (Green)
- Purple Crayola marker: Recyclables (Blue)
- Blue crayon: Compostables (Green)

BOX 12: NOTEBOOKS

The diagram illustrates the waste sorting process for notebooks. On the left, two notebooks are shown: a bright green spiral-bound notebook and a black notebook with a white speckled pattern and a small white label that reads "COMPOSTABLE". A large red arrow points from the top right towards the three recycling bins on the right. The bins are labeled as follows:

- Landfill (Gray): A gray bin.
- Recyclables (Blue): A blue bin with a white recycling symbol.
- Compostables (Green): A green bin with a white recycling symbol.

The End!
